

Frosh Results May Be Invalid

The freshman primary elections which were held October 5 at a special noon convocation may be invalid. Elections Committee and Central Board are now waiting for a ruling from the Judiciary Committee on the constitutionality of the elections. This recommendation will influence Central Board's decision concerning the necessity of a re-run of the primaries.

The issue as presented before Central Board last Thursday was that nominees did not take tests on the ASB constitution and Robert's Rules of Order. According to the constitution, these tests are required of all candidates for president and vice-president. In past years this rule has been overlooked because freshman elections have been held at convocation, where nominations were made directly from the floor and primaries followed immediately.

Other complaints made by the freshmen were that the election was too rushed and that some students turned in more than one ballot.

If the primaries are ruled invalid, nominations for a second election will be made by petition. According to Sam Lassiter, ASB first vice-president, prospective candidates will be allowed a minimum of 48 hours after Central Board's decision for reruns to secure the necessary signatures for nomination.

An interesting result of the situation is that there will be no freshman officers for matriculation ceremonies this Thursday.

Tom Crum, head of the Judiciary Committee, said that unfortunate though the present situation is it will probably bring about a badly needed change in the constitution.

Winning candidates of the primaries were: president — John Pierce and David Gee; vice-president — Marlys Van Winkle, Kenneth Brooks, and Peter Skarbo; secretary-treasurer — Dorianne Nelson, Mary Ann Fletcher, and Gini Keane; and sergeant-at-arms — Dwight Mears and Al Jones.

Tomlinson Assists In UN Week Events

Dr. Warren Tomlinson of the foreign language department has currently been addressing the American Association for the United Nations. The lectures, a series of five, deal with current international crises. They are being given in preparation for United Nations Week, which is to be held this month.

A special feature of the UN Week program will be a mock Security Council meeting, presented with the assistance of members of International Relations Club and representatives from UPS and PLU to last year's Model United Nations. This event will be October 24 at 8 p.m. in the Crystal Ballroom of the Winthrop Hotel.

Debate Clinic Held Here

"A clinic for the Washington High School debate teams was hosted by the University of Puget Sound last weekend," according to Jack C. Kingsley, new director of forensics. The clinic, sponsored by the Washington Debate Coaches Association, will feature exhibitions, workshops, and coaches' meetings.

Inadvertently, Kingsley's name and his personal data were omitted from the last issue of TRAIL. Mr. Kingsley received his A.B. in 1957 and his M.A. in 1959 from UCLA. During his graduate studies he taught at UCLA.

Kingsley was the director of forensics at El Camino College in California before coming to UPS.

Homecoming Gets Publicity

Mayor Ben Hanson and three county commissioners visited the UPS campus yesterday to proclaim UPS homecoming city and county wide. The proceedings were covered by television Channels 11 and 13.

Radio KVT's disc jockeys Weber and Hardwick will plug UPS homecoming this week. Radio KING will broadcast the answer to its question "What is Tacoma contributing to Century 21?", the answer being UPS's "Salute to Century 21."

United Press International and Associated Press coverage will conclude this year's extensive publicity of "A Salute to Century 21," UPS homecoming.

Blooper Show Ends Frosh Week

The freshman Blooper Show, under the direction of Carla Anderson and Jeff Smith, opened September 22 with the Mudflat Ramblers and their version of "When the Saints Go Marching In." The Ramblers were accompanied by the audience with singing, foot stamping, and general noise making.

Tom Jobe, ASB president, and Sam Lassiter, ASB vice-president, then appeared on stage portraying a man and wife team. They did skits to "She's My Girl" and "Spider on the Wall."

Leaflets To Advertise Logger Homecoming

Homecoming will launch the UPS campus into the future in a "Salute to Century 21." Piloted by Gail Pokela Wolf and Tom Sobottka, the flight and festivities begin Wednesday, October 11. Hundreds of alums and visitors are expected. Wednesday afternoon 30,000 leaflets will be dropped over the city of Tacoma to advertise homecoming.

GAIL WOLF, Homecoming Co-chairman.

TOM SOBOTTKA, Homecoming Co-chairman.

The homecoming banquet honoring alums and past homecoming queens and kings will be held at 5:30 Wednesday evening. Hydroplane driver Bill Muncey is tentatively scheduled as special guest.

An innovation to homecoming festivities will be a city-wide clean-up tour. Three UPS trucks, equipped with students dressed in "grubbies," and a clean garbage truck with three trained sanitary engineers will leave the quad en masse at noon on Wednesday. They will gather at the Greyhound bus depot for further er instructions, then sweep their way to the TNT building. Dustpans, brooms, and students will return in time for 1:00 classes.

The coronation of the homecoming queen and king will take place Thursday at 7:45 p.m. in Jones Hall Auditorium. Voting will begin at 1:00 p.m. Tuesday and continue until 1:00 on Thursday. Each of the sororities is sponsoring a queen candidate.

COMMENT

THE University of Puget Sound will hold its Annual Homecoming this weekend. A Homecoming committee was chosen last year and plans for the event were formulated months ago. Hundreds of students have been and will be taking an active part in the festivities. It would be difficult to tabulate the number of man-hours involved in the preparations and carrying out of the Homecoming program.

The committees have been meeting several nights a week for the last month and there are still many more details to cover. The social organizations will have spent most of the week before Homecoming preparing decorations at their respective houses and in the Quadrangle. Many of their members will be staying up all night the night before the Torchlight parade. Countless others will spend the week in arranging final details.

Many students, working many hours, will make this year's Homecoming the largest and most successful ever held. There will be gaiety and enjoyment for all at the various events planned. The alumni will be pleased to see the campus "dressed up" and to take part in some of the festivities. Everyone will have a good time.

There is a part of college life that usually comes around this time of the year, however, which many students will not enjoy as much as the Torchlight Parade.

School has been in session for three weeks now, and many professors will be giving exams next week. As has been the case in the past, many students, perhaps, will have neglected to spend as much time studying in the last week as they should. Consequent unpreparedness for exams will result in a number of students receiving low scores.

Perhaps we should just "Chalk it up to Homecoming." A student must have outside activities to be a well-rounded person. Next week he will get organized, and soon comes Spring Carnival.

The Tragedy of Apartheid

Norman Phillips, Foreign News Editor, Toronto Star

Reporter Phillips' book is one which will be, and is being, received more favorably on this continent than by the Dutch in the Union of South Africa.

After a shooting of 67 Africans in the Union of South Africa in 1959, Norman Phillips traveled there to obtain a story for his paper. The reluctance of Government officials to talk about the incident, in which 67 non-violent demonstrators lost their lives, whetted Phillips' curiosity to the point that he was finally jailed because he uncovered facts on how the policy of apartheid (segregation) is maintained.

Phillips tells of the massacre of 67 Africans at Sharpeville; of the nightmare at Natanga, where, in an effort to break a strike, government troops flayed every man in a Negro housing compound over a period of five days; of the Dutch Reform Church, a basic doctrine of which is that according to the will of God, the Negro is predestined to serve the white man, who is to rule the world; of the Broederbond, the Boer equivalent of the Klu Klux Klan; of the Pan-Africanists and the African National Congress, Negro organizations led by students of Ghandi's methods of passive resistance; of Dr. Verwoerd, violently anti-British, and of his Minister of Justice, who was affiliated with the Nazi party in World War Two.

This book is one that illuminates a subject upon which most of us know little. Well written, it makes the reader aware of the impending storm which may soon descend upon the Union of South Africa.

The homecoming play will be held Thursday immediately following the coronation and again Friday evening. This year the drama department will feature a family situation comedy, "Father of the Bride."

A go-cart contest, featuring Weber and Hardwick of KVI radio, Dr. Thompson, and others, will turn Lawrence Street into a speedway Friday afternoon at 3.

Spirit Night festivities Friday will begin when the torches are lighted at 9:45 in front of the Student Center for the traditional torchlight parade. The parade will tour the decorated fraternity houses, where skits will be presented by house members.

The parade should reach the parking lot at 14th and Lawrence at 11:00 for a bonfire-side program of skits by the sororities. Free hot dogs and punch prepared by Home Economics Club will be served. The evening will be climaxed by a street dance between 14th and 15th on Lawrence. Gary Gonters will provide the music until 1:00 a.m.

Members of women's living groups and other with decorated cars will form the caravan which will leave the quad Saturday at 12:15, arriving at the football field at 1:00. The game with Whitworth will begin at 1:30. At half-time, homecoming royalty will be featured.

The semi-formal Homecoming Dance will be held in the UPS Memorial Fieldhouse beginning at 9:00 Saturday night. Steve Laughery will provide the music, and replicas of space needles will decorate the building. Programs went on sale Monday in the SUB for $2.00.

Homecoming festivities will end with the traditional church service at Mason Methodist Church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

Letter to the Editor

The ASBUPS officers have openly contradicted what they swore to uphold, the ASB constitution. The Freshman nominations for their class officers and the primary election of those nominated was railroaded through in one-half hour by the president and first vice-president of the UPS student body.

Article VII, Section 4, of the ASB Constitution states, "During the first and second weeks after fall classes commence, the Freshman Class shall elect a President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, and a Sergeant-at-Arms. Candidates for Freshman Class President and Vice-President shall be required to successfully complete an examination of the ASB Constitution and Robert's Rules of Order before the Freshman Class primaries. All officers elected in the Freshman Class Elections shall assume their duties at once."

Those nominated for the offices of Frosh President and Vice-President did not take the examination as required by the ASB Constitution. Furthermore, the election was held after the required time element as stated in the Constitution.

At the Central Board meeting of October 5th, Sam Lassiter, chairman of the elections committee, said that the elections committee decided that the Frosh President and Vice-President would take the examination after the final elections. The elections committee has openly violated the ASB Constitution.

Traditionally, the frosh elections have been held during Thursday Convocation, thus allowing all Freshmen the opportunity of nominating their choice of officers. This year the elections were held at noon hour, being replaced in Convocation with a panel discussion on "The Advantages and Disadvantages of Being Pinned."

Certainly the convocation hour could have been more advantageously planned to meet the immediate needs of the Freshman Class.

From the latest practice of directing elections, would it be unreasonable to question the validity of those holding office?

Sincerely yours,
 DEAN SAXON
 Freshman

Dear Sir:
 Last week in this "letters to the editor" column, two UPS students expressed their concern over the loss of their coffee cups due to an overly enthusiastic "busboy," thereby depriving them of a cheap rate on a second cup.

Their right to make their grievance no one would contest. What must not go unchallenged, however, is the less than grade school mentality of the response.

With troops in Berlin, bomb tests in Siberia, and widespread student activity against the un-American Activities Committee, two UPS students were not sufficiently moved to public protest until their coffee cups were taken from under their noses.

What levels of absurdity have now been left untouched? Into what areas of blind triviality will the human mind not wander? Or is this just an inane example of the college "mind" in action?

Last year's editor remarked that the image projected by UPS was "come and drink coffee in our million dollar student center." But who would have guessed that it would come to this?

Physics Dept. Holds Seminars

The physics department has initiated an open seminar program on Mondays at noon in Howarth 14. Although some students are participating for credit, the discussions are open to the entire student body.

This coming Monday Larry Oncley will speak on "Solar Terrestrial Relations," a topic of recent interest concerning the emission of high energy protons that will be a hazard to space travel.

Larry is a physics and music major at UPS. He has worked at Boeing's for two years on this and related problems. The meeting will be of special interest because it deals with the practical aspects of space travel which man will soon have to face.

Kappa Phi Rose Tea Set for Oct. 15

"This year's Kappa Phi Rose Tea will be held Sunday, Oct. 15, from 2 until 4 p.m. in the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson," said Carol Chapin, president of Kappa Phi, a national Methodist women's organization.

Following the theme, "My Kappa Phi Rose," the purpose of the event will be to welcome prospective members, upperclass women as well as freshmen. The tea will also honor alumni and special guests. Co-chairmen Linda Kelso, Jackie Wilson and Nancy Inouye urge all girls interested in attending to notify a Kappa Phi member to obtain an invitation. Pledge cards for those desiring to join will be distributed at the affair.

There will be an open meeting of Kappa Phi Tuesday, Oct. 11, for women wishing to gain more information about Kappa Phi activities and the tea.

Officers of the group include Carol Chapin, president; Roberta Smith, first vice-president and program chairman; Ann Richardson, second vice-president and pledge instructor, and Mrs. Frank Peterson, sponsor.

Cross Currents Seeks Writers

Students interested in submitting copy to UPS's annual literary magazine, Cross Currents, should contact the English department or see Terry Brooks, this year's editor. Brooks wants fiction, essays, poetry, and short plays.

WRA Plans Year

The Women's Recreation Association extended a warm welcome to entering freshman women at a luncheon held last Tuesday noon. The agenda called for explanations of the extra curricular activities offered to the freshman women in the physical education department through WRA.

The girls have already sent the pucks rolling and the hockey sticks clashing. Hockey turnouts started September 25, and will continue at four on Monday and Wednesday afternoons, and ten on Saturday mornings until a qualified team has been chosen to represent UPS. The girls' hockey team will compete in a northwest hockey conference to be held in November at the University of Idaho and Washington State University.

Badminton turnouts for inter-sorority competition are underway on week days at noon. The tournament will begin Thursday, October 5.

W.R.A. is also knee-deep in details planning the Evergreen Girl's Basketball Conference to be held at UPS in March, 1962.

New Rec Room Program Slated for Student Center

A bigger and better recreation room, located in room 10 of the Student Union Building, is being established for students wishing "a place to go and something to do," said Mary Brown, delegate at large to Central Board.

Activities include ping pong and shuffle board with tables provided for card playing, chess, and checkers. Should students care to dance, outlets are available for record players.

Suggestions of installing a juke box, television set, Coke machine and other items are being considered by the Co-Rec Committee, under the chairmanship of Jim Moore. Students are urged to take advantage of these facilities since the more they are used the better the chances will be for enlarging its capacities.

In addition to this there is still room on his staff for sub-editors, copy readers, re-writers, and layout editors. Brooks is hoping that many students will submit copy, to make this year's book even larger than last year's.

Engagement Revealed

During rush this fall Karen Walker, Chi Omega, announced her engagement to Klaus Wills. Kathy Thomas, another Chi Omega, has announced her pinning to Raoul Ancira, a former Kappa Sigma at UPS.

Claudia Carr, of Chi Omega, revealed her engagement to Jim Kreine, who is attending graduate school at the U. of W.

Rena Bott, Alpha Phi, and Robyn Merithew, Sigma Nu, have also told of their engagement.

The pinning of Terry Turnbull to Tom Bernard, Phi Delta Theta alum, and the engagement of Pat Ryan to Rick Crawford, another Phi Delta Theta, have been disclosed. Both Terry and Pat belong to Delta Delta Delta.

Choral Society Slates Program

The Tacoma Choral Society, sponsored by the School of Music of the University of Puget Sound, under the direction of Dr. Charles Fisher, will give its first program of the year in a community Thanksgiving service November 19. In early December the Christmas portion of Handel's Messiah will be presented in conjunction with the UPS-Tacoma Symphony, Dr. Bruce Rodgers conducting.

Second semester the chorus will perform twice. During Lent, the seldom performed Easter portion of the Messiah will be given.

Participation in the group, which numbered 130 last spring, is open to members of the community and University students, according to Dr. Fisher.

A feature of the choir to be emphasized this year will be the selection of a solo choir within the large chorus. Rehearsals will be held Tuesday evenings, 7:30 to 9:20 in room 10 of the University Music Building. University credit is available.

Whitworth Pirates To Oppose Loggers in Homecoming Game

Whitworth's mighty Pirates will be Homecoming guests of the University of Puget Sound football Loggers Saturday afternoon at the UPS campus field. Kickoff time is 1:30.

Homecoming games are usually winning efforts for the Loggers. UPS has won seven of its last eight Homecoming contests and 13 of the last 17. The Loggers thumped Eastern Washington 35-0 last Homecoming and upset Whitworth 6-0 before the grads two years ago.

Both teams will enter this Homecoming game with 2-1 win-loss records. UPS has whipped Willamette (20-19) and Eastern Washington (7-0) while bowing to Western Washington (13-0). Whitworth has defeated Oregon Tech (47-0) and Pacific Lutheran (67-0) while losing a startling upset to Central Washington (33-14). However, reports from Spokane indicated that the Pirates weren't at full strength for the Central game.

Pirates To Pass

The Pirates, on a year's probationary status in football and track, bring one of the nation's outstanding aerial circuses to town. Quarterback Denny Spurlock, national small-college total offense leader last fall and holder of almost all Evergreen passing and total offense records, and end John Murio, one of the nation's top small-college pass receivers, are the principals of the Whitworth Air Force, which has drawn eyes of professional football scouts.

The Pirates have 24 returning lettermen from last year's team that posted an impressive record and Adams terms this fall's Buc squad the best he has coached. However, because of the probationary status, the Whitworths cannot win the league championship nor place in Evergreen standings. Whitworth's football and track contests will count only on opponents' records.

Logger Success

During the past few years, the Loggers have enjoyed more success against the Spokane collegians than any other Evergreen team. Spurlock has had few good days against Puget Sound as UPS coach John Heinrich's defensive strategy has succeeded. Can the Loggers stop Spurlock again? The answer will be found on the UPS campus field this Saturday afternoon.

UPS Swimmers Show Optimism

"We are going to have the best swim team ever," said Logger swim coach Don Duncan in sizing up this year's prospects.

Duncan's optimism stems from the fact that five outstanding freshmen plus six returning lettermen will be on the team this year.

Two swimmers from Wilson High School's state championship team will step into varsity competition. John Jewell, high school All-American, has already smashed last year's sprint times in practice. Jewell is also outstanding in the distance events. Gary Dyer will push record-holder Dave Handy in the butterfly.

Freshman sprinters Rick Perkins from Stadium High School and Brad Bacon from Everett have seen much state high school tournament action. Other freshmen prospects are as follows: George Sickel, John Countryman, Bruce Barnes, Ed Amet, Mike Evereth, Gary Bishop, Lawrence Wills, and John Ogbo-ga.

Dave Handy heads the list of returning lettermen. Dave set an Evergreen Conference record in the butterfly last year. Also distance man Ron Jones; George Teats, backstroke, and Norm Clark, breaststroke, will return.

Coach Duncan invites the public to watch team turnouts starting at 4:30.

Actress Appears in Seattle

Dame Judith Anderson, tragedienne and Shakespearean actress, appeared in Seattle at the Orpheum Theater on Friday, Sept. 29. With actor William Roerick, Dame Judith did scenes from Shakespeare's "Macbeth," and Robinson Jeffers' "Tower Beyond Tragedy," and "Medea," both of which are free translations of Euripidean tragedies.

Dame Judith received her title of Dame Commander of the British Empire in 1960 from Queen Elizabeth II. This is the equivalent of being knighted.

Dame Judith has received several Emmy Awards for her television performances in this country, including appearances in "Macbeth" last year. Her portrayal of Medea has been acclaimed in this country and in Europe, as well as in her native Australia.

Western Beats UPS Gridders

Western Washington State College, led by hard-running halfback Ken Fry, powered past the University of Puget Sound Loggers 13-0 last Saturday afternoon in the Coach George Palo Memorial Game on the UPS campus. The win kept the Vikings in a first place Evergreen Conference tie with Central Washington (both 2-0) and dropped the Loggers to third (1-1).

After a scoreless first half, the Vikings took advantage of a pass interception on the UPS 23 to score their first touchdown and then, after another pass interception late in the game, drove 24 yards for the final tally.

Fry gained 137 yards rushing against the Loggers.

Defensive stalwarts for the Tacoma collegians were Vid Dekshenicks, Mike Brustkern, Cal Christoph and Rod Hoepner (who returned to the Logger squad last Tuesday following a year's lay-off).

Basketball Meeting

All University of Puget Sound students who have registered for varsity or junior varsity basketball or are interested in turning our for the Logger squad will meet Friday at 4 p.m. in the Athletic Dept. office in the Fieldhouse.

Official turnouts begin next Monday. The first games will be held in the Fieldhouse Dec. 1-2 as the Loggers participate in the Tacoma Athletic Commission Tournament.
